

The Fact

BY OUR FORMULA we produce in Hood's Sarsaparilla a medicine that has an unapproached record of cures of Scrofula, Eczema, Catarrh, Rheumatism, Eruptions, That Tired Feeling, Loss of Appetite, etc.

If there is a doubt in your mind as to the truth of this assertion write us for testimonials, read them, and then verify them by writing to those who have been cured.

Just think of the mass of testimony. For more than thirty years grateful people have been telling us of the benefit they have received from Hood's Sarsaparilla. In two years we received by actual count, 40,366 of these letters.

The Reason

Why it Cures. Hood's Sarsaparilla effects its wonderful cures, not simply because it contains sarsaparilla but because it combines the utmost remedial values of more than 20 different ingredients, each greatly strengthened and enriched by our method of combining them, which is "peculiar to itself."

We make no secret of the ingredients,—all of them are well known and many of them are those regularly prescribed by successful physicians for all troubles of the blood, stomach, kidneys and liver,—but the combination and proportions, which give power to cure beyond the reach of other prescriptions, are from a formula known only to ourselves, so the conclusion is obvious.

The Obvious Conclusion

There Can Be No Real Substitute. If urged to buy any preparation said to be "just as good," you may be sure it is inferior, costs less to make, and yields the dealer a larger profit.

Hood's Sarsaparilla makes pure blood. If you have any trouble caused by impure blood, or if you have "that tired feeling," which is an indication that your blood is not in good condition, you should begin taking it today. In usual liquid form or in chocolate tablets known as Sarsatabs. 100 doses $1.

Forest Fires Caused Much Anxiety—House Burned to Ground—Personal Items of Interest.

Fires which have no doubt been encouraged by the very strong winds of the past few days, have caused much anxiety in certain sections. On Thursday night a fire started in the lower part of Dodgingtown on some woodland and traveled quickly through the property of S. W. Platt and John Beers, reaching in a short time the land of Theron Platt where the efforts of large number of men kept the flames from destroying a tenement house nearby. The strong gale blowing had almost proved too much for the workers but their persistent efforts conquered the flames.

The residence of James Keane near the home of Constable Tilson, was burned to the ground Wednesday night.

Miss Nellie Abel, an employee at the Allison Lacey Co., Hawleyville, accidentally slipped, and fell, but completed her work for the day. The following day it was found that she had injured the spine.

Mrs. Philo Burthop and Mrs. Theodore Stratton are among the sick.

Miss Fannie Andrews of Stillman's Business College, Danbury, is spending the Easter vacation at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. P. S. Andrews.

Mr. and Mrs. J. Albert Blackman are entertaining Mrs. Clarence Naramore, of Bridgeport.

Masses at St. Rose's church Easter Sunday will be at 8 and 10 o'clock, instead of 9 and 11.

Special efforts have been made for the dance to be given Easter Monday evening under the auspices of St. Rose's Drum Corps at St. Mary's hall, Sandy Hook. Fine music will be furnished by McGrath's orchestra of Danbury, and refreshments will be served. The official committee in charge are Michael Keating, Frank Agost, Patrick Bradley, John Talty, and John J. Carmody.

A regular meeting of Footlock Grange will be held Tuesday evening, April 13. All members are requested to be present.

The club whist for Tuesday evening promises a large attendance. The evening will no doubt prove a pleasant one for all.

Guests at the home of Arthur T. Nettleton, Friday night, were Mrs. George H. Beers of Danbury; a sister, Mrs. Samuel G. Judd, of Stamford, and a cousin, Mrs. Annie G. Hart, of New York.

The L. B. Lake place, recently vacated by L. C. Nicholson, has been bought by James B. Nichols.

Miss Margaret Cavendish and Dorette L. Gordon are enjoying a visit over Easter with friends in Mamoroneck and New York city.

George Burroughs spent Friday with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. George Ruffles.

A large fire was plainly seen on Newtown street during the high winds of Thursday night. It was learned that over 400 cords of wood had been burned in the vicinity of South Britain.

L. C. Nicholson, who has been in New Fairfield has been spending the week in town.

Andrew Smith of Bridgeport, is a guest at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Levi C. Morris.

Miss Ruth Knowe of Atlantic Highlands a former teacher at the Newburgh School, recently visited the Misses Jesse and Mabel Taylor.

Miss Gladys Riled of Bridgeport is spending a few days with her cousins Misses Ida, Driscoll and Jessie Gordon on Walnut Tree Hill.

Miss May Egan of St. Elizabeth's College Convent Station, N. J., is an guest at the home of her mother, Mrs. Margaret Egan.

Daniel Honan, teacher in charge of South Center School is enjoying the Easter vacation since Tuesday.

Mr. A. J. Campbell of New Haven has visited friends in town.

The many friends of Lawrence Taylor regret to learn that he has tendered his resignation as State Engineer of N. Y. N. H. & H. R. Co. at Newtown and has left his position to-day for a more lucrative field as shipping clerk for Harvey Hubbell of Bridgeport.

This offer is made by this well known house to introduce their large catalogue of general merchandise, household goods, jewelry, novelties, etc., and the readers of this paper are requested to send their name and address immediately, enclosing four two-cent stamps to cover packing and postage.

Send today and be the possessor of a piece of jewelry that you will be proud of, and which does not cost you anything.

Deaths and Funerals

After an illness of several months, Patrick Cody died, yesterday afternoon, at his home, No. 1 Yanstone Court. He was a resident of the South End the biggest part of his life, where he was well known and highly respected. He was employed by the Bridgeport Hydraulic Co. and was a member of the Woodmen of the World. He is survived by a widow, three daughters and five sons.

John J. Tierney, a well known and life long resident of the South End, died at his home, 133 Gregory street, yesterday afternoon, after a long illness, at the age of 35 years. He was an iron moulder by trade, a member of the Iron Moulders of America, and was a member of the United Brotherhood of Carpenters and Joiners of America. He is survived by a widow and one sister, Mrs. John Murphy.

Mary Egan, wife of James Fitzsimmons, died last night at her home, 252 Warren street, after a brief illness. She leaves her husband, three daughters, Mrs. Charles Hynes of New York, Mrs. H. J. Sheridan and Miss Annie Fitzsimmons, and two sons Joseph and James Fitzsimmons.

Mrs. Bridget Furness, widow of the late John R. Lobdell, died last evening at her home, 129 Wakeley street, aged 67 years. The deceased had been in ill health for some time. About a year ago, while she was a patient at St. Vincent's hospital, her husband was found dead in the back yard of his home.

The production of Portland cement in the United States last year exceeded 40,000,000 barrels.

THE THEATRES

SMITH'S.

The excellent presentation of "Uncle Tom's Cabin" yesterday delighted big audiences, which will doubtless be further attracted to this event, when the old play will be seen again. The presenting cast is fully equal to any which has been seen in the play in a number of years, and the stage production is splendid. The theatre should be filled to the doors this evening.

Max Rogers, the "little fellow" of the Rogers Brothers, supported by Joe Kane, late star of "The Belle of New York" and other New York Casino success, who plays the opposite role and the original New York Company, in his latest musical play "In Panama" will be the attraction Easter Monday evening. This season there is a strong plot, a new departure in musical comedy. Mr. Rogers will continue his broken English dialect and the contrast between his style of expression and the many types found in the much talked of country of Panama will be sure to create a great deal of humor. The play is in three acts, depicting life in Panama and are elaborate and graphic stage pictures of localities which they represent.

Miss Ethel Barrymore's engagement in "Lady Frederick," the comedy in three acts by W. Somerset Maugham, takes place Tuesday night, "Jack Straw" was a clever play by "Lady Frederick" is by all odds Mr. Maugham's most brilliant achievement, and will remain for the present, the play upon which his reputation will rest.

The current season is the most successful that Miss Barrymore has ever played. She tells an interesting story that holds the attention from the first of the first curtain to the fall of the last. In "Lady Frederick" and supplies the part with a character that suits her admirably. The attractive Irish widow who gives her name to the play, could scarcely be called a widow, and there is no doubt that she is hopelessly in debt and extravagant to a degree, but she has admirers by the score at Monte Carlo and in one of her many as four proposals of marriage.

B. C. Whitney's greatest musical success, "Knockout or a Day" with Frank Deshon in the leading comedy role of "Jonathan Joy," will be the attraction at the matinee and evening performances, after which it came to Misses Ida, Driscoll and Jessie Gordon on Walnut Tree Hill.

Miss May Egan of St. Elizabeth's College Convent Station, N. J., is an guest at the home of her mother, Mrs. Margaret Egan.
